

Opposed to allowing financial institutions to do telemarketing!
Our state has worked hard to curtail and it has been effective. I'm sure if people want information about products they will call the financial institutions!